Welcome to the birthplace of public higher education in America. Spanning 760 acres in Athens, the University of Georgia’s main campus has everything from historic landmarks to state-of-the-art buildings. This walking tour starts in downtown Athens at the Arch, located on Broad Street. Public parking is available at the North Campus Parking Deck (231 Jackson St.), on streets and in decks across downtown.

1. ARCH
   At nearly 160 years old, the cast iron Arch bordering downtown Athens marks the entrance to campus and is the most iconic symbol of the university.

2. HOLMES-HUNTER ACADEMIC BUILDING
   The Holmes-Hunter Academic Building is named after Hamilton Holmes and Charlayne Hunter-Gault, UGA’s first African-American students. Today, the 36,000 student body represents all 50 states and more than 120 nations.

3. CHAPEL AND CHAPEL BELL
   The Chapel is a former church that now hosts lectures, events, even weddings and is home to the Chapel Bell, a university landmark. The Bell is located behind the chapel.

4. HERTY FIELD
   Herty Field was UGA’s first athletic field and was the site of our first intercollegiate football game. UGA defeated Mercer in 1892 with a score of 50-0.

5. ILAH DUNLAP LITTLE MEMORIAL LIBRARY
   The Main Library was built in 1952 with a seven-story annex added in 1974. Together, all units of the UGA Libraries own more than 4.6 million volumes and 6.6 million microfilm units.

6. MILLER LEARNING CENTER
   The Miller Learning Center, opened in 2003, houses classrooms and library space in the heart of campus. Inside are also nearly 100 individual study rooms, and more than 500 computer work stations.

7. TATE STUDENT CENTER
   Named for the late William Tate, the center contains a food court, a 500-seat movie theater, dance studios, the university’s student-run radio station, and much more.

8. SANFORD STADIUM
   Sanford Stadium is home to the University of Georgia Bulldogs football team. Located in the heart of campus, Sanford Stadium is one of the largest college football stadiums in the country with a capacity of 92,746.
ON YOUR WALK

1. TERRELL HALL – home to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions and the Graduate School
2. ADMINISTRATION BUILDING – offices of the president and senior vice presidents
3. OLD COLLEGE – oldest building on campus built in 1806. Because there was uncertainty which way the campus would grow, the front and back of the building are identical.
4. MOORE COLLEGE – houses the Honors Program
5. LAW SCHOOL – home to Georgia Law, one of the top public law schools in the country.
6. FOUNDERS GARDEN – created as a living memorial to the Ladies’ Garden Club of Athens, the first garden club in America, organized in 1891
7. PARK HALL – home of the English and Classics Departments
8. FINE ARTS BUILDING – houses a 682-seat theater that hosts performances open to the public
9. BUSINESS LEARNING COMMUNITY – one of the newest communities on campus and home to the Terry College of Business, the first business school in the South. The BLC boasts state-of-the-art facilities for the university’s largest college – one in four UGA students are enrolled in Terry.
10. UGA BOOKSTORE – the best stop for your UGA apparel.

ONLY AT GEORGIA

11. SPECIAL COLLECTIONS LIBRARY – The Special Collections Library houses materials related to the history and culture of Georgia including the Peabody Award archives, the most prestigious award for electronic media.
12. SCIENCE LEARNING CENTER – Opened in 2016, the 122,500 square-foot facility is a modern space for the STEM fields (science, technology, engineering, mathematics.) It features labs, classrooms, collaboration space, and even a coffee and bagel shop for late-night study sessions.
13. STEGEMAN COLISEUM – Opened in 1964, the Coliseum is home to the UGA basketball and gymnastics teams and has a capacity of more than 10,000.
14. BUTTS-MEHRE – The Butts-Mehre building houses the UGA Athletic Association. The building has a museum of athletic memorabilia open to the public during the week.
15. GEORGIA MUSEUM OF ART – UGA is home to the official state museum of art. Admission is free, but the museum is closed on Mondays.
16. HUGH HODGSON CONCERT HALL – Hodgson Hall hosts the University of Georgia large ensemble performances, world-class artists, and major international orchestras.
17. RAMSEY CENTER – At 440,000 square feet, the Ramsey Student Center is one of the largest student athletic recreation facilities in the United States.

AWARD-WINNING DINING

18. BOLTON DINING COMMONS
   790 S. Lumpkin Street
19. OGLETHORPE HOUSE DINING COMMONS
   160 University Court
20. SNELLING DINING COMMONS
   200 W. Green Street
21. VILLAGE SUMMIT
   80 Carlton Street
22. VISITORS CENTER
   405 College Station Rd, Athens, GA 30602
   (706) 542-0842

MORE EATERIES, MENUS, LOCATIONS & HOURS: DINING.UGA.EDU

DOWNLOAD OUR APP
Our mobile app is a great tool for students and guests alike. The app features campus and Athens transit bus routes, parking information, campus maps, and a list of helpful links.